Culture & TRADITION

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE REGION - LAKE NEUSIEDL

With the inclusion in the UNESCO World Heritage List in December 2001, the landscape of Lake Neusiedl is (Hungarian: Fertő) has been awarded its villages, cultural and natural values as a cultural landscape "of exceptional and universal value". Simply being nominated for World Heritage has been made jointly by Hungary and Burgenland, so that the World Heritage FertőNeusiedler Lake is one of the few cross-border World Heritage Sites.

THE LAKE, THE LANDSCAPE, THE VILLAGES - A UNIT

Lake Neusiedl and the surrounding landscape are a natural geographical unit. This unique landscape between the Alps and the Hungarian Plain formed over millennia in the interplay between nature and culture. In the seascape nature and landscape form a closed unit, are embedded in the well-defined, compact villages. Because the flat land was abandoned in the past any enemy attack open, the houses had to move closely: strung close together, sometimes staggered residential and commercial building in the street Anger- and villages.

A DIVERSITY AS RARE WHERE ...

The Fertő-Lake Neusiedl region is geologically and geo-morphological diversity of unique embossed. Lake Neusiedl is the westernmost steppe of Eurasia. The Lake Neusiedl region has in every respect to a wide variety, characterized by reeds, water and situated in the hills of vineyards. The cultural landscape of Fertő-Lake Neusiedl is a green heart in a European city triangle Vienna - Bratislava

- Győr. The regional actors are aware of the need to develop a sustainable regional strategy which takes account of economic, social and environmental objectives alike.

WE ARE THE WORLD HERITAGE!

On the Austrian side Apetlon, breitenbrunn, Donnerskirchen Frauenkirchen, Gols, Illmitz, Jois Mörbisch am See, Neusiedl am See, Oggau am Neusiedler See, Oslip, Pamhagen, Podersdorf am See, Purbach include Lake Neusiedl, Rust, Protect the mountains, St. Andrä am Zicksee, St. Michael im Burgenland, Weiden am See Winden am See to the world heritage region of lake Neusiedl.

World Heritage cultural landscape Fertő-Lake Neusiedl has global significance. Primarily, the sustainable development of our living space is, however, an initiative of the population living here and our guests. An increased awareness of our world heritage is a central task of the World Heritage Association.

AUTUMN FESTIVAL GOLD IN EISENSTADT

ZEITENWENDE

Papa Haydn and his best students

Ludwig van Beethoven, whose 250th anniversary is celebrated in 2020, was undoubtedly the most successful student of Joseph Haydn. "Papa Haydn", revered by contemporaries as a music Pope gave the young Beethoven decisive impulses out of which this went to great musical step into the 19th century. The music in 1800 changed significantly from its courtly imprint in a larger, middle-class public, from classical introspection to the great utopian gesture. In the center of HERBSTGOLD

- Festival is this time the ratio pupil - teacher and the only great work that Beethoven composed for Prince Esterházy, his Mass in C major.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS 2020

- Opening concert with Altstaedt and the Haydn Orchestra
- Balkan Roma & Sounds
- Culinary Festival Pan O'Gusto
- Jazz at the Castle
- Haydn Marathon

CASTLE FORCHTENSTEIN

Its origin dates back to the 13th century. In 1622 it became the property of the Esterházy who gave it its present appearance. Even today, the castle exudes the charm of times long gone: Whether you want to discover history or stylish celebrations, the ambience of Forchtenstein is incomparable.

CASTLE TOUR WITH WEAPONS COLLECTION

Our castle tour takes you into contact with impressive exhibits and historic rooms. Let yourself be guided by our knowledgeable guides and discover treasures of the so-called Baroque high castle. You get glimpses of uniformed worlds and into the much-stocked Esterházy Rüstdepot - today one of the largest private armory stocks in Europe.

HEROES - TREASURES - LOOT PIECES

Prince Paul I created myth and his family tree: In his order, the Esterházy gallery of ancestors originated, now the largest baroque family gallery in Central Europe, in the real and fictional ancestors give yourself an impressive rendezvous. But part of this tour is also the silver furniture room. Here worldwide unique presents - Baroque silver furniture from the treasury of the house. Both material and intangible resources, it had to be protected ever since.

OPERA IN THE QUARRY ST. MARGARETHEN

July 8th-15th AUGUST

Three mystery, the mysterious Princess Turandot every man who asks for her hand and around the square on the throne beside her. If you can not solve the puzzles loses his life under the relentless sword of executioner. The spilled blood of hundreds of candidates soaked the streets of Beijing, the Chinese people groaning under the tyrannical rule of the icy princess. All hopes rest on a nameless prince who takes one day with his old, blind father and him unconditionally following Liù from the distant kingdom of the Tartars in the palace of the dreaded virgin ruler. Miraculously, he solves Turandot's fiendish puzzles. When they refused, the Tartarenprinzen to shake hands, he puts the stubborn princess in turn a riddle: You should call him his name, no one knows. Turandot pulls out all its power in motion and imposed a ban to sleep on their people until the name of the unknown is found ...

"No sleep - Nessun dorma", so as the famous aria of Prince, in which he sings about the dreaded Turandot and its getting hotter blazing love for this relentless and fascinating woman starts. Giacomo Puccini succeeded with this litter one of the most famous and popular arias in the entire opera literature, a perfect vehicle for a dramatic tenor. With a dazzling and dramatic blazing music full of catchy melodies of Maestro abducted from Lucca us in the distant and exotic worlds of fairy tales moon cold princess. Puccini's glistening and mysterious jagged sounds find their ideal echo in the craggy landscape of the St. Margarethen quarry. The rätselumwobene Turandot is one of the most demanding opera roles at all, and hardly any music is so close to our hearts as the poignant pleas and complaints of the self-sacrificing Liu`. Giacomo Puccini sparked a veritable whirlwind of emotions in the last flares up even the cold heart of the icy princess in love.

FREISTADT RUST AM SEE NEUSIEDLER

The city has about 2,000 inhabitants is the smallest administrative district in Austria and exercises its autonomy by its own city charter. Rust was first mentioned already 1317. The Ruster received in 1470 to burn, which enabled them to virtually duty-free wine export to the Crown Lands market rights and in 1524 the legal right as a trademark a „R“ in their barrels. In 1681 the people of Rust purchased from the Herrschaftsuntertänigkeit free and paid for it 60,000 gold guilders and 500 buckets best wine, 30,000 liters, an outbreak of Furmint. Since the end of 2001, the region is Lake Neusiedl and the old town of Rust part of the UNESCO World Heritage Fertő-Lake Neusiedl.

MODEL CITY OF PRESERVATION

The entire old town, which is one of the most picturesque of its kind, is a listed building. The many houses from the 16th-19th Century have maintained Baroque or Renaissance facades with beautiful windows and Portalrahmungen, Bay, crest and Stukkdekorationen. The characteristic arched portals leading into the idyllic courtyards with covered staircases and arcades, some with remains of the city wall from the 16th century. The historic center is since 1954 under the protection of the Hague Convention „R“ and in 1975 - as a model „city of monuments“ - in addition to Salzburg and Krems “ excellent because a vital „Old Town is“. This means that the houses still have their original function as a residential and commercial properties.

FISHING CHURCH

The art and cultural history probably most valuable building is the fishermen's church, a small fortified church, which is surrounded by a circular wall. It stands on the former cemetery and provides a nearly complete picture of Burgenland art history. from 12th-16th Century built and changed to the church. The name "Fishermen's Church" appears only in the 20th century. Today, the church can be visited as a museum and as part of a classical concert dance.

TOWN OF STORKS

The white stork has a very special meaning for Rust and is considered secret emblem of the city. The chimneys of the old town is the largest stork colony in the country. Storks are in Rust since the previous turn of the century (1900). In order to create the ideal living conditions Storch, a „program to protect the white stork was 'created' to its implementation endeavors of the Rust Stork Club. The storks come March 20 and fly mid-August to its wintering grounds in Africa. In recent years, the stork population in Rust has stabilized. Now breed on average about 15 stork couples who raise about 35 young storks.

CITY OF FINE WINE

Rust is lived, which is no longer taken for granted in other wine regions: rich in tradition, original viticulture. This has always been so: Today, as hundreds of years ago, the wine is the livelihood for many families Ruster. They use what nature offers them. The specific microclimate of Lake Neusiedl, the different soil structures and the differences in height of the vineyards create an environment that is both for the cultivation of white and red grape varieties best suited for growing grapes. These natural conditions, coupled with the skillful craftsmanship of winemakers, establish the city's reputation. Here you can experience what is elsewhere almost impossible to find: the luster of fine wines.

WINE ACADEMY AUSTRIA

The Wine Academy offers - whether novice wine or wine professional - attractive wine experiences in atmospheric ambience at. The seminar offers range from a Weinschnuppertag about Wine & Food Seminars to Weinakademiker- and Master of Wine Course.

THE BRIDGE OF ANDAU

On October 23, 1956 in Hungary a popular uprising broke out. This uprising was crushed by Soviet troops on November 5. About 200,000 Hungarians fled abroad. The "Bridge of Andau" was at that time for many of the last possible way to freedom. Thousands of them came from all over Hungary on Einserkanal to Andau, in the freedom of the West. This small, insignificant and yet world-famous persistence bridge was blown up shortly afterwards.

The municipality Andau and people have rendered great humanitarian achievements in these days and weeks that would be inconceivable today. Today, this "Bridge of Andau" is back. Not only as a monument that reminds us of the unfortunate time of a divided Europe; it is also a symbol of helpfulness, tolerance and togetherness across all political boundaries!

ROMAN PALACE INVESTMENT

In the second half of the first century, a plant was built in timber technology. This was converted into a half-timbered building with many murals. The main building was built palatial 350 AD. In addition, many rooms have been equipped with mosaic floors. Some of the small finds are of great cultural historical value. Guided tours for groups annually from June to September by appointment at the municipal office Bruckneudorf instead. The excavations, however, can visit any time. The site is freely accessible. It is located on Marc-Aurel cycle path R10 and is on the east highway A4 (Exit 40) and Interstate 10 in easy reach.

NATIONAL PARK Lake Neusiedl - Seewinkel

Here - in the extreme east of Austria - to find such a perfect Central European variety. Embedded switch between the foothills of the Alps and the small Hungarian Plain extensive lawns with saline Sodalacken, sandy soils are found here as well as dominated by salt flats - and not least there is the Lake Neusiedl himself who makes this area so unique and distinctive. This diversity of habitats and the favorable geographical location at the edge regions of different major regions lead to incredible wealth in the flora and fauna of the region. Animals whose distribution areas extend over the plains of East Asia feel here just as well as plants that grow on seashores. The area is a breeding ground for over 170 species of birds. Whether dazzling bee-eaters, graceful avocet or imposing Great Bustard - they all use the habitats of the national park to raise their young. In addition, the area is international importance as a resting place for the European-African migration: rest here, eating and molting thousands and thousands of migratory birds of more than a hundred species on their way between winter quarters and breeding. To discover there's always something - 365 days a year! So good. WINTER FRESH

Hard to believe but true: even in the Pannonian Plain, the winter temperatures can fall sufficiently Lake Neusiedl freezes. And then have to be quick. Because the happiness or the freezing temperatures often do not last long. So quickly gather together everything and nothing like the largest steppe lake in Central Europe! On the huge ice rink prevails these days hustle and bustle, because these outdoor ice rink is truly unique.

Several days with severe winter temperatures are in the region around Lake Neusiedl but rather an exception to the rule. When it gets warmer, the ice disappears then often also quite fast.
